to prove to you—as one of the dwindling few in this community who are strangers to the Live Store—the multitudinous merits of our modern clothing service.

Whatever measure of success this store has won is due solely and only to the growing favor in which it is held by your fellow citizens. And we respectfully submit that the exalted position which their verdict accords us is a subject worthy your consideration.

What is it these men find here that they can find nowhere else?

What is it these men find here that clothes to choose from—that draws them here again and again for KUPPENHEIMER clothes at $18 to $35?

Being gifted with large bumps of patience and persistence, we wait for you to pay us a neighborly call and see.

FLIES FEAR ELECTRIC FANS

About the only thing a fly or mosquito is afraid of is an electric fan.

While it is not known why these little pests fear the whirling blades, it is certain, however, that an Electric Fan will keep flies off the windows and show cases, and from the candy, vegetables and other foodstuff exposed for sale, even though the breeze is not allowed to play over the places or goods to be protected. Merchants find the Electric Fan invaluable for keeping flies out of their stores. A fan is placed near the main entrance to the store, so that the air current flows toward the doorway, very few flies will enter.

The fly, that deadliest of household pests, creates stagnant air and hot, stuffy rooms. It creates no comfort and lingers not where Electric Fans constantly and vigorously allow a pure, cool air to abundantly circulate in every nook and corner.

PAIGE
MAYBE it is an old fashioned idea this notion of putting all the value possible into the car itself—and as little as possible into overhead expense—

But it has given the Paige a positively dominant position among cars of medium price—

Ample capital for operating purposes—no bonded indebtedness—no excessive capitalization—no heavy overhead of any kind to be paid for.

Just a full dollar of car value for every dollar of the selling price.

Is it any wonder that the Paige is going to be oversold again this year in spite of increased production?

NEGRO BAPTISTS

Continue Great Meeting at Bethel Church—Yesterday's Proceedings

"If we look after our boys and girls when they are young we will have less heartaches and fewer Negroes in the penitentiaries and chain gangs," declared Miss M. E. Williams at the opening of the second day's session of the Consolidated Baptist Educational Sunday-School Convention yesterday morning in Bethel Baptist Church. The delegation had largely increased.

"We have no time to sit around and complain," continued Miss Williams, "for complaints and wallings never yet made a race and never will. This is an age of work. Our long life must be improved and improved it must be, but this is to be through the proper training of our children. It is cheaper to build schools and employ teachers than it is to build jails and employ officers. We want that life and property shall be made safe at all times and in all our southernland, especially in Kentucky, where we live. Keep our young people busy and there will be less crime. The Sunday School is doing all this. We hope to get our young people to think and we will have been paid for all of our work."

Rev. H. Nutter of Paris, conducted the devotional exercises. He read scripture lesson and made the opening prayer. Mrs. Maria S. Blackburn read the Journal which was approved and the convention turned attention to departmental meetings. Mrs. L. B. Fouse had charge of Superintendents; Rev. J. E. McCutcher, Bible Class; Miss M. E. Smalley, Intermediate Department; Mrs. M. L. Brooks, Primary Department.

"The Child" was discussed by Mrs. Stella Barnes. She deplored the fact that Adam, while he was the sole possessor of the Garden of Eden, yet he missed the pleasure of boyhood. She points out the many privileges of being a child. The address was practical and full of common sense advice to the colored people of the State.

Rev. J. M. Moore, Missionary for the Western part of Kentucky addressed the convention.

Two prominent Negroes were introduced in the session yesterday afternoon. Rev. Henry Alth Boyd of Nashville, Tenn., assistant secretary of National Baptist Publishing Board, and secretary of the National Baptist Sunday School Congress; and Chas. Stewart, A. M., of Chicago, Ill., the foremost Negro newspaper correspondent in America. Rev. Boyd is a native of Texas, and Stewart is a native of Frankfort, Ky. Mrs. Susie Mitchell of Louisville, Ky., matron of the State University presented the Claims of the Baptist Women's Educational Convention and was given a collection of $12.35 for the Educational work. She was given an ovation.

Nathan Jones of Sharpshurg, told how to bring the children to Christ.

Last night the church was crowded and many were turned away. Rev. T. J. Smith of Versailles, delivered the annual Education service.

Miss M. C. Williams delivered her annual address. It was a literary effort taking up many phases of Sunday School work. Her long dealings with children as a public school teacher and her work in the Sunday School makes her the foremost woman of her church and race in the State.

The delegates are loud in their praises for the Rev. Robert Jackson; the members of Bethel Baptist Church and the citizens. Dr. Jackson is one of the leading pastors in the State and his members are going to send him to the National Baptist Convention which meets in Philadelphia next September.

The convention will close tonight with a banquet to the delegates by the church and citizens and Rev. H. A. Boyd will deliver an address.

He was called from his room by a vociferous serenade after midnight and, after a mock trial on the campus was thrown into the fountain.
